

Amatite ROOFING

AMATITE is a ready roofing which comes in handy rolls so that you simply unroll it on your roof and nail it down and secure ideal protection from the weather.

Amatite is different from other roofings because it has a mineral surface consisting of particles of stone embedded in coal tar pitch, which makes a kind of pitch-concrete.

This pitch-concrete surface needs no painting. Accordingly when you consider the relative cost of different roofings, bear in mind what you must pay for paint for other roofings every two or three years, in addition to the original cost of the roofing.

Amatite weighs twice as much as other roofings at the same price. In other words, you get twice as much roofing for every hundred square feet of roof. You want as good a solid and substantial roofing as your money will buy. Compare values carefully and you will have to buy Amatite!

Amatite is easy to lay—the mineral surface creates no difficulties in handling. Nails and cement are furnished free, packed in the centre of every roll.

Free sample will be sent on request.

RUSSIAN DUMA PROPOGUE

By Czar's Order Deputies Won't Meet Until Middle November.

Petrograd, Sept. 16, via London—The Russian Duma has prorogued today until the middle of November, President Rodzianko announcing an imperial order authorizing the prorogation which has been transmitted through Premier Goremykin.

The session lasted only three minutes. There was a muttering from a section of the laborite and radical deputies of "it is a crime" as the imperial message was read by the vice president, but the constitutional democrats maintained silence.

All the deputies immediately left the hall and only Deputy Kersensky, a laborite, who shouted "Down with all traitors" attempting to speak. The leaders of the Duma decided there should be no debate because M. Kersensky insisted upon his right to say what he desired.

It is pointed out that the emperor reserved the right to recall the Duma before November 14 if he wished.

SUNDAY OBSERVANCE

E. L. Taylor Wants Rights of Others Respected.

Editor of The Banner: Your editorial in the Banner of Sept. 8th might be misleading to some of your readers, but if you will allow me a little space in the Banner, I think you and I can agree on some points in regard to the Sabbath laws to which you refer. Why is it that those who have no regard to keeping the Sabbath are so indifferent to the rights of their fellow citizens? I do not claim to be "My Brothers Keeper" or to dictate him in his belief in religious matters but as the laws are now, are not the residents of our villages entitled to some consideration? You refer to the "test case" that is to be heard in Brattleboro. How can a jury do otherwise than to convict if the evidence produced proves the offense, if the jury respect their oaths? The question of the expediency of finding the defendant guilty or not under the present state of public opinion has nothing to do with the case, and the jury have no right to consider that phase of the question. If under the changed conditions of our social and business activities of these later years, the laws are not reasonably just and proper, then let us so amend the laws that we may not be lawbreakers. It would seem as though from the pick of the citizens of Vermont, "most noted for wisdom", our representatives could agree upon some method that would harmonize these conflicting opinions on such matters. I never object to work that seems necessary by a concern on Sunday, but to lay out work that can be done just as well on a week day to be done on Sunday and to keep up an uproar all day long to the annoyance of all citizens in the neighborhood is quite another matter. The question will soon come before us. Shall we have a Sunday at all? I believe a "day off" in every seven is beneficial in many respects not only to allow those who are religiously inclined to attend church for in that way we get physical rest and mental release from worries that come in the work and business of most of us. Another point with all the good reading to be had these days if scores of our young people would improve their minds instead of sporting away the day, the moral tone of the coming generation would be elevated in my opinion. I believe a "reasonable separation between necessary and unnecessary Sunday business" should be established and still give those of us who like to see our villages less business like on Sunday, what I think we have a right to demand that we be permitted to enjoy peace and quiet in our homes one day in the week.

KNOWS LITTLE OF DUMBA

Vienna Cut Off from Official Facts About Request for His Recall

A message from Vienna sent by courier to Berlin and dated Monday, says: "Even now no admission can be obtained in any government quarters that anything more is known about the United States' governments request for the recall of Dr. Constantin Theodor Dumba, the Austro-Hungarian Ambassador at Washington, than is printed in the Swiss, French and German newspapers reaching here."

"It appears to be a fact that no report of any nature has yet been received from the ambassador himself, nor has Frederick C. Penfield, the American ambassador received Secretary of State Lansing's note requesting the withdrawal of Dumba.

"The first news Mr. Penfield received concerning the situation was contained in foreign newspapers. Austria is so cut off from the outside world that it is doubtful whether Dr.

Dumba's report can be received other than by means of a messenger, which indicates that at least a fortnight of waiting will result.

"Conversations with various persons in a position to speak strengthen the impression already reported by the Associated Press, that the Austro-

Hungarian government ardently desires to avoid anything which would lead to the belief that the Dumba matter signifies anything approaching an actual political issue or likely to have any effect whatever on the relations between Austria and the United States."
